

2023 (Men's) Pro Circuit Handbook Quick Guide

1. FIBA 3x3 Pro Circuit

1.1. Introduction

The Pro Circuit, <https://worldtour.fiba3x3.com>, consists of a series of Pro Events:

- several Challengers,
- a World Tour Opener,
- several World Tour Masters,
- a World Tour Final.

The standard competition format of a Pro Event is always 12 teams in a Main Draw played over 2 days with 0-2 Qualification Draws.

Teams qualify to the Pro Events mainly via ranking (including performance) and a network of underlying qualifiers.

Only Validated Teams and Soft-Validated Teams can play in Pro Events, i.e. Challengers and World Tour ("WT") events. Both are events are FIBA Official Competitions.

The path to the Pro Event is based on the FIBA 3x3 competition network:

All events part of the FIBA 3x3 competition network provide individual ranking points to the players based on event level, team performance and player's individual stats.

The team ranking is comprised by the sum of the ranking of points of the top 3 players of each team. More on rankings can be found on <https://fiba3x3.com/en/documents.html#ranking>.

1.2. Challengers

The standard allocation of teams in a Challenger follows the below structure:

Main Draw	1	Host Slot
	2	Host Slot
	3	Automated Allocation	Qualifying Draw A	11	Lite Quest
	4	Automated Allocation		12	Lite Quest
	5	Automated Allocation		13	Lite Quest
	6	Automated Allocation
	7	Automated Allocation	Qualifying Draw B	14	Host Slot
	8	Automated Allocation		15	Host Slot
	9	Automated Allocation/Performance Slot		16	Host Slot
	10	Highest ranked Lite Quest
	-	Qualifying Draw A Winner
	-	Qualifying Draw B Winner

Each Challenger may have a different breakdown by type of slot; such breakdown being at FIBA's discretion.

Automatic allocation is based on teams' pre-registration and is regulated by the number of automated slots of each validated team and their ranking following article 4.5 of the Handbook. Only validated teams can pre-register for Automated Allocation; the automated allocated slots are awarded 5 Wednesdays before the respective Challenger.

All teams and/or qualifiers of a given Challengers will be known with 5 Wednesdays to go. If replacement teams are required after the Automated Allocation, then a replacement process will automatically kick-in to identify the replacement team (Article 4.7).

1.3. World Tour

The standard allocation of teams in a WT Masters follows the below structure:

Main Draw	1	Host Slot
	2	Performance Slot (in any)
	3	Performance Slot (in any)	Qualifying Draw	12	Quest
	4	Challenger		13	Quest
	5	Challenger		14	Quest
	6	Challenger
	7	Challenger
	8	Challenger
	9	Challenger
	10	Super Quest or Quest
	11	Super Quest or Quest
	-	Qualifying Draw Winner

Each WT Masters has a different breakdown by type of slot, such breakdown being at FIBA's discretion. WT Opener has a specific qualification system, whilst qualification to the WT Final is based on WT standings.

Variations like a WT Masters featuring 2 Qualifying Draws are possible, in this case, only 10 teams will be qualified directly to the Main Draw.

All teams and/or qualifiers of a given World Tour Masters will be known with 5 Wednesdays to go. If replacement teams are required with less than 5 Wednesday to go, then a replacement process will automatically kick-in to identify the replacement team (Article 5.6).

1.4. Performance slots (article 5.5)

Performance slots are offered by FIBA based on objective performance criteria of a team in the previous or current season. Examples of those criteria:

- Winner of prior season's WT Final
- Ranking such as the top 8 ranked teams at the beginning of the season (so called Hard Seeds).
- The teams with the highest win ratio in the Pro Circuit to the last WT Masters before the WT Final.
- Derived from U23 Nations League.

1.5. Stand-by Slots (article 7.9)

If there is a need to fill missing slots in a given Pro Event, a regulated protocol will lead FIBA to select a team to fill the gap.
